

GOV. PATRICK APPOINTS NAHIGIAN TO MASSDOT REAL ESTATE APPRAISAL REVIEW BOARD

October 9, 2012

NEWTON, MASSACHUSETTS

Governor Deval Patrick announced in September, 2012 that he has reappointed Rob Nahigian, FRICS, SIOR, CRE, MCR of Auburndale Realty Co, Newton, Mass. to the MassDOT Real Estate Appraisal Review Board. Gov. Patrick along with Lt. Gov. Murray stated in a letter his thanks to Rob for having served on this Board over the last few years and his commitment to continue serving the Commonwealth. Rob has been on the Appraisal Review Board since 2004. The Appraisal Review Board offers final recommendations on property valuation taken by eminent domain on behalf of MassDot for public use. Rob has served on many cases including properties at the Cape Cod Bridge, the Rt. 2 corridor, Fenway Park area and Martha's Vineyard. Gov. Patrick stated that Rob's experience and sound judgment will contribute substantially to the Board. Rob has been serving as a highest and best use expert on the Board and with commercial/industrial real estate expertise.
